

d-wave part. $F(\omega)$ is nearly constant with an upper-energy cut-off of about 0.4eV. The dimensionless coupling constant $g_0 = 0.15$. These results were predicted in a theory of superconductivity and of the strange metal phase by quantum-critical fluctuation of loop-currents. They also rule out several alternatives